Where have I felt God's encouragement and invitation? What helps me respond wholeheartedly to God's transforming grace in my life? For what grace do I need to pray

March Holiday - March 1st

Invitation: Adoration during Lent

The students at St Vincent de Paul would like to invite our parishioners to come and adore Jesus with us on Wednesdays from 7am-7:30am throughout the season of Lent. It is our prayer that we will hear the voice of God through this season and set our community on fire with the Holy Spirit. Please prayerfully consider adoring Jesus with us over these next 6 weeks. It's true that the biggest sacrifice we can make is our time. Come sit with Jesus for 30 over the next 6 weeks.

This is a great chance for your child to participate in the Mass in a special way, learn more about their faith and music, and meet great new friends! The group rehearses weekly on Mondays from 6:00 pm to 6:45 pm at St. Thomas Church. We will perform at Mass on Saturday, May 11th. For more information or to register, contact Tyler. Saint & Virtue of the Month

St. Scholastica - Loyalty

PRAYER

Dear Jesus,

Thank you that I was born in a country where many freedoms are protected. Please keep all soldiers safe today. I pray for all those who have died during their service. They have sacrificed their life like You did, so that we can be safe and free. May I never take these gifts for granted, and may I remember that the good things I enjoy have been won for me by brave men and women. Help me to practice the virtue of loyalty, and always respect those who have sacrificed for our country.

Amen.

Loyalty Looks Like:

- loyalty to our nation and all those who serve in the military

Do I stop working and put my right hand over my heart during the Pledge of Allegiance?

Do I thank those in the military when I see them?

Do I respect the symbols of the United States?

Am I careful to remember to pray for my country and our servicemen and women?
