ATTENTION HANDBOOK HIGHLIGHT #2

Communication

Every effort is made to keep parents informed of school events. Important information is communicated through the school website (www.svdpcatholicsschool.org), FACTS information system, SVS parent Facebook page, SVS Instagram, SVS This Week newsletter and church bulletins.

Parents are welcome to confer personally with the principal and/or teachers. In each case, it is advisable to call or email the school office in advance to arrange an appointment to discuss any issues of concern.

It is also important that parents contact the teacher before contacting the principal. If they are not satisfied following conferencing with the teacher, they should request a conference with the principal and teacher collectively so as to resolve any issues.

ATTENTION HANDBOOK HIGHLIGHT #2

Discipline

Communication to parents regarding student misbehavior is accomplished through a system of written “Checklists” (in conjunction with phone calls, conferences or emails). Checklists are divided into categories, which graduate in severity based on the behavioral infraction.

The “Category 1 Checklist” results in a warning. However, three (3) warnings within a 9week period will result in a detention.
This checklist is for minor infractions.

The “Category 2 Checklist” may be given for repeated warnings and also for more serious behavioral infractions. These result in immediate detention. A student receiving three “Category 2 Checklists” within a 9-week period will receive an in-school suspension.

The “Category 3 Checklists” are most severe and may result in In-school suspension or out of school suspension as well as a meeting with the principal and/or Pastor, or expulsion depending on the severity of the situation.

ATTENTION HANDBOOK HIGHLIGHT #2

Classroom Expectations

Each student should be allowed to learn without interruption from other students.

Teachers expect to teach without behavioral disruption, so when the teacher is speaking, students must listen and follow directions.

Students will respect all others and keep hands, feet and objects to themselves.

Students should be prepared for class each day, including having the necessary books, supplies, homework and updated planner.

Students should stay in their seat unless given permission to do otherwise.

Students should raise their hand and wait to be recognized before speaking.

All assignments are to be turned in on time. Failure to turn in homework/classwork on the correct day will result in a checklist. It is the responsibility of the student to discuss with the teacher missed or incomplete assignments.

Individual teachers have the discretion to expand on these classroom behavioral guidelines and/or disciplinary procedures.

Beta Club

St. Vincent de Paul Catholic School Beta Club Earns National Recognition at 2025 National Beta Convention

National Beta members from SVDP recently earned national accolades for their exceptional accomplishments at the 2025 National Beta Convention, held in Orlando, FL.

These honors follow their success at the Mississippi State Beta Convention, where they first qualified to compete at the national level. The National Convention drew thousands of Beta members from across the country. This year's event welcomed over 3,000 Elementary (grades 4–5), 5,100 Junior (grades 6–8), and 6,900 Senior (grades 9–12) students—making it the largest National Convention gathering in National Beta history.

Congratulations, Charlie, Archer, Conrad, and Jesse! We are proud of you!

6th Grade Service Project

Parents, especially those in the medical field, 6th grade will be making little hats for Rachael's Angels.

They are in need of some supplies that you may be able to get or have lying around.

They are in need of

- stockinettes - it is a stretchy material used for bandages.
- We need flannel fabric (pastel only can be printed, but has to be sweet and not bold.)
- We can use flannel receiving blankets if you have some you no longer need.
