Saint & Virtue of the Month

St. Teresa of Avila -Docility

Docility.

the willingness to be taught

Looks Like

- silently taking a correction when a teacher or parent points something out to you that you need to grow in.

Sounds Like

- responding politely even when you want to make a comeback.

If we are docile, we say,
“Yes, thank you for letting me know. I will work on that.”

Dear Jesus

Dear Jesus, my pride is wounded when my teachers or parents find fault with my actions and attitudes. Yet I know that I'm not perfect. Help me today to practice docility when corrected, so that I can become more virtuous. Grant me the grace to hold my tongue and listen attentively with a humble heart, to really benefit from what those who love me are trying to help me see.

Amen.
